282 CHURCHES CLASSIFIED AS EXCEEDERS; 248 CHURCHES FAIL TO REACH '37-'38 SUMS

Record Shows That 53.2% of Churches Equal or Surpass Last Year's Totals.

A grand total of 282 churches or mission points in the Synod of North Carolina either gave as much or more to Barium Springs in 1938-1939 than was given to the Home in 1937-1938. This is the final status of affairs, which means that 41 other churches went into the "exceeders" category during the days of April that the books were held open to record the receipts of 1938-1939.

This is a good report and one which is of great encouragement to Orphanage authorities. A total of 530 churches or mission points helped in the past 12 months, meaning that slighly more than 53.2% could be classified in this grouping. It is also remembered that 258 churches contributed more in 1937-1938 than 1936-1937.

Those 282 churches are distributed among the Presbyteries as follows:

Presbytery	Number
Albemarle	21
Concord	42
Fayetteville	30
Granville	14
Kings Mountain	22
Mecklenburg	49
Orange	43
Wilmington	35
Winston-Salem	26
Total	282

The 282 churches gaining this unusal distinction are recorded below:

Albemarle Presbytery—Ahoskie, Ballard's Mission, Calvary, Cann Memorial, Falkland, Grace Chapel, Greenville, Hollywood, Howard Memorial, Jason, Kinston, Macclesfield, Mayo Mission, Morton, Nahalah, New Bern, Poplar Point, Rocky Mount First, Rocky Mount Second, Runnymeade, Snow Hill.

Concord Presbytery—Arrowood, Bayless Memorial, Beattie Memorial, Bethesda, Bethpage, Bridgewater, Centre, Cleveland, Clio, Clinchfield, Conley Memorial, Elmwood, Fairview, Fifth Creek, Frankin, Gilwood, Glen Alpine, Harmony, Hebron (same), Hickory, Lenoir, McDowell, McKinnon, Mooresville First, Morganton, New Salem, Newton, Oakdale, Old Fort, Patterson, Poplar Tent, Rocky River, Salisbury Second, Shearer, Shiloh, Siloam, Statesville First, Tabor, Third Creek, Thyatira, Waldensian, West Marion.

Fayetteville—Brownson Memorial, Cameron, Covenant, Culdee, Cypress, Dundarrach (same), Dunn, Gibson, Highland, Hope Mills Union, Leaflet, Lillington, Lumber Bridge, Lumberton, Mile

The 248 Churches Lacked A Conbined Total of $5,951.82. Many Under $10.00.

If 248 churches or mission points in North Carolina could have exactly duplicated their gifts of 1937-1938 fiscal year, then Barium would have received $5,951.82 more from Synod than it did. Of course, some of those "exceeders" substantially surpassed the 1937-1938 totals; otherwise, the income at the Home would have dropped off considerably in the past 12 months.

However, the 248 churches failing to measure up to last year's giving lacked the total figure mentioned above. According to Presbyteries, the following shows the number of churches in each that were shy of the 1937-1938 aggregates and the total for the churches in each Presbytery:

Presbytery	No. of Churches	Lacked
Albemarle	16	$ 343.02
Concord	23	1,101.80
Fayetteville	60	1,193.79
Granville	25	461.28
Kings Mountain	15	481.69
Mecklenburg	35	811.47
Orange	21	434.71
Wilmington	33	556.20
Winston-Salem	20	567.86
Totals	248	$5,951.82

Of that $5,951.82 total, 108 churches lacked more than $10.00 of coming up to last year's mark, being responsible for $5,390.59 of that sum. That left $561.23 for which 140 churches were responsible. Eighteen churches missed last year's total by less than $1.00; 68 lacked between $1.00 and $4.99, and 54 lacked $5.00 to $9.99.

Below will be found the churches on the minus side in 1938-1939, as compared with 1937-1938, an actual figure being given to those needing at least $10.00 to come up to the 1937-1938 giving, the others being grouped according to the amount behind:

Concord First	$724.19
Myers Park	275.32
Gastonia First	253.95
Winston-Salem First	216.82
Reynolda	189.98
Maxton	175.11
Raleigh First	155.14
Saint Paul (F)	135.86
Belmont	127.55
Fayetteville First	123.00
Washington	109.92
Charlotte Second	109.48
Reidsville	99.45
Ernest Myatt	94.59
Saint Andrews (W)	93.91
Erwin	82.03
Covenant (W)	81.47
Marion	80.11
Ashpole	76.75

GOOD NEWS

Recent decisions and inaugurations on the part of a Men's Club, four Sunday Schools and three Auxiliaries will mean approximately $850 in gifts to this Home before 1939-1940 has been concluded, and thus the "good news" article for the May issue of The Messenger merits blackface type, plus an exceedingly warm spot in the hearts of the Orphanage population. None of these organizations can picture the happy reaction at Barium Springs. It is felt that the happines experienced in the early part of the current year is going to be continued as other organizations adopt some form of aiding the Home from month to month. But, here's the items:

The Men's Club of the Myers Park Church have "adopted" a set of twins in the Orphanage family here and will send $600.00 to this Home in the next twelve months for their support.

Bethlehem Sunday School in Albemarle Presbytery and Badin Sunday School in Mecklenburg have both adopted the offering-per-month plan.

Ephesus Sunday School in Fayetteville Presbytery and Goshen Sunday School in Kings Mountain Presbytery have both adopted the plan of sending the fifth Sunday Offerings to Barium Springs.

A circle in the Philadelphus Auxiliary in Fayetteville Presbytery has decided to take an offering each month for Barium; Gastonia First Auxiliary has added another circle and will send $12.00 more this year, while Raleigh First Auxiliary has added five circles and will send $60.00 more during 1939-1940 than was sent in 1938-1939.

Special information has also been received that the Huntington Bible Class of the Caldwell Memorial Church in Mecklenburg will continue to send $300.00 to support a boy at Barium Springs and that the Durham First Auxiliary will continue its plan of sending $2.00 per month per circle. The Huntington Bible Class will continue its $300.00 to Barium for the third year in succession and the Durham First Auxiliary will be on its second year of $2.00 per circle.

WHAT GOOD NEWS WILL BE AVAILABLE FOR THE JUNE MESSENGER?

REGENTS MET AT BARIUM IN MAY

This Was Semi-Annual Session to Hear 1938-1939 Reports - 17 Attend.

Seventeen of the 20 regents of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home assembled here May 9th for the semi-annual meeting of this governing body of the home operated here for more than 300 children. Dr. J. R. McGregor of Burlington, president of the board, presided over the sessions that formally opened Monday night and were concluded Tuesday afternoon, during which the annual reports were made by the superintendent and treasurer of the institution.

Joseph B. Johnston, superintendent, reported on the manifold phases of the life at the home, showing that a good year had been experienced in the school, in health, and in the religious life of the children. Another fiscal year was completed with no death in the orphanage family, the last death having occured almost 13 years ago. School records were above the average. During the year, 34 children were accepted into the Home.

The treasurer, Ernest Milton, reported current obligations of $5,692.91 on March 31, which was a

28 BOYS AND GIRLS GRADUATED ON APRIL 24TH AT CONCLUSION OF FOUR-DAY PROGRAM

Three Splendid Addresses Marked 1939 Commencement.—David Flowers Awarded Ace Medal, Eleanor Eudy Won Bible Medal and Music Improvement Went to Helen Price

In a world that takes delight in white-washing misery and in thoroughly misrepresenting a multitude of things to the distress of humanity, members of the 1939 graduating class of the Barium Springs high school were urged by Rev. Jas. A. Jones, pastor of the Henderson Presbyterian Church, to "give to your life a conception of the dignity of life itself, an invariable love of truth, and adhere unswervingly to the virtue of faith." Rev. Mr. Jones was delivering the commencement address at the final exercises on Monday night, April 24th, when 28 boys and girls of the local high school finished their careers here.

Prior to the address of the visiting minister, the invocation was made by Rev. T. C. Cook, pastor of Little Joe's Church; Helen Thomas delivered the salutatory address, and certificates of promotion were given to the seventh grade members by Harry Barkley, principal of the grammar grades. After the address, Rev. Mr. Cook presented a Bible to each of the 28 graduates and Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent of the Presbyterian Orphans' Home, made the award of medals.

Before so doing, Mr. Johnston announced that 60 students in the elementary school had perfect attendance records and this honor went to 50 in the high school, which meant no absences or tardiness in the whole year. Fourteen children in the elementary grades were to receive reading certificates, said Mr. Johnston. He also publicly acknowledged the gift of the graduating class, which was two lovely vases to be used for flowers in the church.

Instead of scholarship medals in the grammar and high school grades, it was decided to award several prizes this year, due to a change in the grading system. Lillie Bryant, Wootson Davis, Betty Williamson, John Ammons and Esau Davis won these prizes in the lower grades. In the high school, these went to Mott Price, George Norris, Nelson Farmer, Rufus Long, Edward Cole and Henry Alessandrini.

The Fred Sherrill prizes for the two boys and two girls showing greatest improvement in the high school during 1938-1939 went to Marjorie Lail, Louise Brock, Robert Brown and Worth Bolton. The music improvement medal was awarded to Helen Price; to Eleanor Eudy went the Bible medal, and a prize to Helen Thomas, for runner-up for the Bible medal. The final presentation was the Ace medal, which went to David Flowers upon the vote of the high school members and those workers affiliated with the Home.

After R. G. Calhoun, school principal, presented the diplomas, the junior class gathered behind the seniors to sing the farewell song, the valedictory address was made by Alice Jones, the Barium alma mater song was sung, and Rev. Mr. Jones pronounced the benediction.

First telling the seniors at the outset that "we are living in an exceedingly confused world, when the circumstances all about us are provocative of deep distress, and when the rapidity of events of modern life leave for our spirits almost utter despair," the Henderson pastor went on to say that such varied matters of civilization "places us who have obtained the privilege of learning in a difficult position of responsibility and insight into the task of determining for our own life and for the life of the world those issues which shall best fit us for service and for the glory of a great civilization."

To the end that they might obtain nobility, Rev. Mr. Jones offered three suggestions. First named was the dignity of life itself. "We are living in an exceedingly materialistic world," said the speaker, "which demands that we should give to life above all other gifts, the conception of the virtue of hu-

News From Some Of The Cottages

LEE'S COTTAGE

Here we are again, folks, to bring you the news of the month.

We are all feeling fine and are happy because school is out. It was a good school year for us all. Two of our boys, Mott Price and Esau Davis, won scholarship prizes.

We are going to miss our senior boys and girls. As they go out from us, we wish them a successful life. We were proud to have an ex-Lee's boy, David Flowers, win the Ace Medal.

We expect to have a good time at the camp this summer. We enjoyed it a lot last year.

Miss Turner, our matron, went to the Tri-Sate Orphanage Conference at Thomasville, and told us many interesting things about the boys and girls there.

Mr. Thompson, of the Statesville Nursery, gave us some beautiful shrubbery and some very interesting cactus plants. Both the shrubs and cactus plants are doing fine.

Two of our boys have been visited by their mothers. They are Wilbur Coates and Bobbie Whittle.

Herbert McMasters and Snyder Reed are working as housecats over at Jennie Gilmer. Our housecats are now doing some spring cleaning. They have started at the top of the house and are working down.

On the Truck Farm we have been planting corn, beans, potatoes and tomatoes, and are looking forward to a good long summer of taking care of them.

So long until next month.

—Jack McCall

HOWARD COTTAGE

Hello Folks,

Our school is out and most of our seniors are leaving.

Vacations will soon start. We are thinking about camp, too.

Ten of our girls joined the church two weeks ago.

Toni DeLancy, Janie Hall, Hannah Price, Mae Allen Barrett and Frances Bowles had a nice visit from their people.

Some of our girls who got show tickets are Peggy Lou Buie, Mary Alice Stevens, Betty Lou Williamson, Elizabeth Langley, Nita Shepherd and Mary Ann Ryder.

Miss Bell took the fourth grade to the show and four out of the third grade for helping them in their commencement program.

So long until next month.

—Dixie Lee Buie.

ANNIE LOUISE

Hello Friends,

Our school closed April 24th and we had a very interesting commencement. The first, second and third grades gave a play, "The Little Lane." The fourth grade members were negroes, the fifth grade boys and girls were mountaineers, the sixth graders were Indians and the seventh grade sang some old songs.

Doris Gant, Betty Jo Smith and Martha Price had visits from their home folks.

Last week Pat Hooten went with Mrs. Jackins and other friends to see a lovely tulip garden near Salisbury. We know she enjoyed the trip.

We are looking forward to going to camp the last of May.

RUMPLE HALL

Hi Folks,

Here we are ready to give you a little bit of what has been happening around here.

Commencement is over now and most of the seniors have gone. We miss them very much and hope them success in their future life.

School used to kept us busy studying our lessons but since school has closed we haven't much to do except listen to the radio, but we enjoy listening to a good many programs.

Here are the names of the girls in the seventh grade who live at our cottage and who were promoted to High School: Betty Adams, Billie Ammons, Bertha Lee Broome, Beulah Baldwin, Evelyn Coppedge, Janie Smith, Juanita McMasters, and Marie Morgan.

Bertha Lee Broome had a visit from her sister and three other girl friends Sunday. Betty Whittle also enjoyed a visit from her mother and sister.

News is short so we will be with you again next month.

So Long,
Joyce Weeks.
Betty Whittle.

BABY COTTAGE

Hello Friends,

We haven't forgotten you.

School is out. Now we can look forward to our vacations, camping trip, fruit, swimming, and everything else summer brings, including warm weather.

The end of school also brought us the departure of many dear school mates. One of them was Mary Duffie Coppedge. We hated to see her leave but are glad to have Lillie Bryant to replace Mary Duffie.

Mrs. O'Kelly has gone home for two weeks. We miss her very much but are glad to have Mrs. Marshall stay with us while she is gone.

Louise Martin is back from the hospital from having her appendix removed.

May Lynn Jones stuck a needle in her finger and got it infected.

Tommie Rhyne, the Barnes, Jackie Williams, Gertie Smith, May Lynn Jones and Louise Martin have all had visits from their folks.

Lorene Hall, Clyde Reid, Douglas Davis and Lillie Bryant got a perfect attendance certificate. We are all very proud that they can attend school for eight months without being absent and without being tardy.

Until next time goodbye.

—The Babies.

SYNOD COTTAGE

Dear Friends,

We can at least say school is out and vacation has finally come.

Mr. Johnston gave all the cottages a baseball and a bat. We all enjoy them very much and thank him for giving them to us.

We have started going barefooted. That means some of us have sore feet.

Mrs. Pat Johnston from Mooresville brought us lots of funny papers, books, and games. We enjoyed them a lots. They kept us quiet for a long time. Thank you, Mrs. Johnston.

Camp is only about two weeks away. We have already started counting the days.

We have a new house girl, Margaret Presnell, from Rumple Hall. She is taking Grace Shroyer's place who graduated this year.

You will be hearing from us again soon.

—The Synod Boys.

INFIRMARY

Dear Readers,

Another month has passed and we find it's time to write you again.

The Board of Regents met here May 9th. Mr. Clontz of Whiteville, and Mr. McGregor, of Burlington, spent the night with us at the Infirmary. We enjoyed having them and hope they will be with us again.

Miss Lackey and Miss Woods have decided to go to the World's Fair at New York for their vacation. They will leave Monday and stay for two weeks.

Mrs. McNatt is going away Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Jackins to St. Pauls. She will spend Sunday there.

Our Softball team will play Children's Home Monday at Winston-Salem. Nancy Stafford expects to see her mother there.

Swimming season will soon be here and we can hardly wait to put our bathing suits on. It's getting awfully hot and the water would certainly feel good.

Look for us again next month.

—Lillie McDonald.

man personality. As the years unfold before you let me insist that you maintain steadfastly your consciousness of the dignity of human persons. Let no onslaught of life's foes take away from you that simple confidence, that abiding faith in yourself that shall enable you to withstand against the besetting problems of our day."

In the second place, the Henderson minister urged the Barium graduates to "give to your future and to your life, and through your life to the world, an invariable love for the truth. Ours is a world," he said, "that takes delight in thoroughly white-washing misery and in thoroughly misrepresenting a multitude of things to the distress of our own beings. Let me say that we must speak that which is noble, we must aspire to that which is abiding in truth as the problems of our own experience present themselves. Unless there is a sound principle of the love of truth, there will invariably be utter distress and misery."

His final suggestion was that the seniors cultivate a capacity to meet, with the required courage, the life of faith and the life of daring, preceding this assertion with the statement that the present world despises faith. He urged them to exercise an inner eye of faith, which would enable them to see visions that are not visible to the human eye. "As the days come to you and life unfolds before you, adhere to that simple belief that assures you glory and comfort when the travels of life shall be done.'

Baccalaureate Sermon

"What is That in Thine Hand?" was the subject of a timely baccalaureate sermon delivered here Sunday morning, April 23rd, to the 1939 graduates of Barium Springs high school by Dr. John R. Hay, pastor of the Hickory Presbyterian church. In the evening Rev. Neill R. McGeachy, Spencer Presbyterian church pastor, urged his hearers to anchor their lives to that of Jesus Christ as they launch forth upon the sea of college, or business or of matrimony.

These two sermons, part of the 1939 commencement program, were listened to by the entire Orphanage family and a good many outsiders, most of whom were at Barium Springs Monday night for final exercises.

"Just now you graduates appear before God in a new and most significant way," said Dr. Hay, after his exposition on the life of Moses and his use of the rod in his hand. "What is that in thine hand? Will you humbly answer Him and let Him talk with you about it?"

The Hickory pastor then touched upon ten answers on the part of the graduates, and each of the answers, he said, could be either a rod or a serpent, depending upon the use to which each individual put it.

The first answer that a graduate might give to that query, he said, was a diploma, which represented a great goal attained, something which had been completed. Money was the second possible answer, and Dr. Hay spent some time upon this because "money will make or break you. All of us need to learn the mastery of money, for the making and spending of money are serious tests of ability and character and are the fundamentals of a successful life. Will money be a rod or serpent in your hand?"

Tools, toys, talent, a token, the cup, opportunity, a hand and myself, were other answers mentioned in answering the question. Books, typewriters, saws, hammers, a surgeon's knife and many other things represented the tools that could be rightly used. In speaking of toys, Dr. Hay urged his hearers to combine some play with their work but warned them not to make toys out of tools.

He advised the graduates to have their talents always ready for use and asked them to always be ready to present the right kind of token, or card, which would indicate proper affiliations in life. He said that the cup represented one's social habits and these habits, he contended, are definitely either a rod or serpent. He warned that opportunities may not be long in hand, but that advantage should be taken of them, and the hand that one holds in his or her hand is that of someone who needs help, or the hand of a sweetheart or life's mate.

His closing answer to the question was "myself." "Often it is remarked," said the Hickory pastor, " 'he has himself well in hand' for this or that crisis. That is what we have when we have achieved a well developed personality, and this all depends on whether God blesses and uses that which you have in your hand."

Young People's Sermon

Rev. Mr. McGeachy asked his congregation to think of themselves as an ocean liner, setting sail for a sheltered wharf upon a sea where storms would be met, where cross-currents were always endeavoring to sweep one off the right course, and where treacherous reefs and shoals wait to wreck the ship.

"Some of you," he said, "will set sail upon the sea of college life. You have an idea that it will all be rosy and beautiful, with no despair or disillusionment to beset you." However, he warned that a student in college will find men of many minds, some of whom would try to destroy the ideals inculcated in youth. "Some school mates," he continued, "will tell you that you are an old fogey and will also tell you that the first indiscretion of drinking or gambling is no great sin. You'll need something on that sea to hold you straight."

The next sea was that of business. Some people will try to tell you, said the speaker, that success is fine cars, money, power over people, a high place in the social ladder. "You've been taught here to be honest, not to cheat, not to lie, not to steal, to always play fair and square. The successful man is the one who has an honest mind and soul. You're going to need to choose rightly or wreck your life on the sea of business."

He touched upon the sea of matrimony. "That sea," he said, "looks to be the smoothest, the calmest, the most refreshing of all others, but even in the happiest of marriages, there comes a time when it seems that inevitable shipwreck is ahead." But to this and other tempestous seas an answer can be found in having an anchor.

An anchor, said Mr. McGeachy, is the last safety device. "I hear you saying that an anchor drags, it keeps you from moving, but there are times when you can move only with an anchor," and cited an experience on the Nile River in Egypt when it was the use of an anchor that enabled a small boat to move. "There are times when only by being anchored to Jesus Christ can we make any progress on the seas."

Class Day Exercises

On Monday morning, April 24th, the senior class presented its class-day program in the form of a three-act play entitled, "Beyond the Port". The setting was the deck of the good ship "S S Barium Springs". The first scene was the embarking of the class of 1939 in the eighth grade almost four years ago; the second scene dealt with the discouragements that the class members were experiencing as the journey continued, while the closing scene was the disembarking of the class upon the completion of the journey. Just before the members trekked down the gangplank, the Ancient Mariner, played by Nelson Farmer, gazed into the crystal ball and visualized the future activities of each member.

The characters and the parts played by each were: Prologue, Helen Price; Captain, Arthur Sigmon; First Mate, Lee Spencer; Sailor, Robert Brown; Purser, Bobbie Bosworth; Senior, Worth Bolton; Radio Operator, Roland Gant; Chief Engineer, MacSherry Lackey; Captain's Aide, J. D. Beshears; Ship's Doctor, David Flowers; Ship's Hostess, Ernestine Garrett; Stewardess, Elizabeth Shropshire; Pauline, Helen Moore; Eleanor, Bessie Kennedy; Mary, Grace Shroyer; John, Paul McKenzie; Jean, Mildred Eudy; King Neptune, Miller Blue; Ambassador, Dalma Jessup; Ancient Mariner, Nelson Farmer; Epilogue, Alice Jones. The properties were in charge of Larry Marlowe and Lacy Adcox and special effects were in charge of James Martin and Alexander Edwards.

Elementary Program.

On Friday night, April 21st, the elementary school presented an entertaining and delightful program in two parts. The first half of the program was an operetta by the primary department and the first, second and third grades participated in this. The second division was entitled "Episodes in American Music". The sixth grade took the part of American Indians; the fifth grade members were mountaineers; the fourth grade portrayed negroes and miscellaneous American music was sung by the seventh grade.

Play Was Given.

"What Happened to Jones" was the title of a comedy in three acts that was presented by the public speaking department of the high chool under the direction of George Neel. This was part of the graduating exercises and was offered to a packed house on Thursday night, April 20th.

The three scenes were all laid in the New York home of "Prof. Ebenezer Goodly", who was portrayed by Nelson Farmer. "Professor Goodly" was a teacher of anatomy. The others in the cast included "Jones", who traveled for a hymn-book house, David Flowers; "Rev. Antony Goodly, D. D." bishop of Ballaret, Miller Blue; "Richard Heatherly," engaged to Marjorie, William Smith; "Thomas Holder", a policeman, Henry Alessandrini; "William Bigbee", an inmate of the sanatorium, Ed Cole; "Henry Fuller", superintendent of the sanatorium, Dalma Jessup; "Mrs. Goodly", Ebenezer's wife, Helen Price; "Cissy", Ebenezer's ward, Johnnie Burgin; "Marjorie" and "Minerva", Ebenezer's daughters, Sally Farmer and Marjorie Lail; "Alvina Starlight", Mrs. Goodly's sister, Mary Ann McCormick, and "Helma", a Swedish servant-girl, Thelma Robards.

Commencement Marshals

Nancy Parcell was chief marshal for the 1939 commencement, and assisting her were Henry Alessandrini, Ed Cole, Rufus Long, William Smith, Clarence Robards, Walter Mott and John Cole McCrimmon.

The year of 1938-1939 has been concluded and in this May issue of The Messenger is being published the final table of receipts - a table that has some encouraging aspects and some that are not conducive to feelings of exultation, but on the whole, the former predominate.

During the past 12 months, Synod gave Barium Springs $88,174.76, and that was an increase of $87.20 over its 1937-1938 aggregate. Of that sum, $43,524.62 was sent as Thanksgiving Offering, or 49.4%, while the remaining 50.6% of Synod's giving totaled $44,650.14, and was the month-to-month income of Barium. It is still perfectly evident that the Orphanage must depend upon the Thanksgiving Offering for virtually one-half of its income, but it is hoped that the regular percentage is going to gradually climb upward.

Very little change occurs in the Presbytery standings from year to year, and the fiscal period of 1938-1939 was no exception. The order of listing the nine Presbyteries underwent one change in the past 12 months and that was the swapping of places between Wilmington and Fayetteville Presbyteries. At the end of 1937-1938, Wilmington occupied the cellar berth and Fayetteville was eighth. This was reversed at the end of 1938-1939.

Per capita increases were shown by three Presbyteries, one Presbytery had an identical per capita average for the two years, five Presbyteries showed a falling off in per capita giving, and the entire Synod declined 1.9 cents per person, despite the monetary increase. The increase in gifts did not keep abreast of the increase in membership in the North Carolina Synod last year.

Albemarle Presbytery led the increases with a gain of 10 cents per person; Orange was next with a positive advantage of 3.7 cents per individual, and Kings Mountain Presbytery had a gain of 1.5 cents per person. Mecklenburg's per capita average was identical for the two years.

Winston-Salem Presbytery led the decreases. That territory showed 16.1 cents per person less than last year, and the other declines for each of the remaining four Presbyteries were as follows: Fayetteville, 8.8 cents; Granville, 6.1 cents; Wilmington, 1.9 cents and Concord Presbytery, 1 cent.

WINTER SPORTS BANQUET HELD

From The Statesville Daily.

Barium Springs, April 1. — The annual banquet for the winter sports contingents at the Presbyterian Orphans' Home was held at Barium Springs last night, honoring the basketball outfits and the wrestling team. George N. Neel, who coached the South Piedmont basketball girl champions, was the toastmaster of the occasion. In addition to the performers on the several teams and local workers at Barium Springs, several interested friends from Statesville and this section were also invited to partake of a delicious meal and the fellowship of the evening.

No set speeches were arranged, but a number of the visitors made talks in such a manner and way that one would have thought that these had been rehearsed and planned for some time. Clean sports, resourcefulness, good coaching and teamwork were some of the things touched upon in the impromptu remarks.

Captains for the three varsity teams were announced as letters were awarded to those who won their spurs this winter. Grace Coppedge will captain the girls' basketball sextette; Rex Lewis heads the boys' basketball quint, and Jack Weeks is captain of the 1940 wrestlers.

John Wesley Erwin awarded wrestling letters to Capt. J. D. Beshears, captain-elect Jack Weeks, George Lewis, Miller Blue, John Irby McDonald, Jesse Weeks, Dalma Jessup, William Cranfill. Barium's wrestlers were runner-ups to the state champions, after having won the title for five years.

Barium's undefeated 125-pound boys' basketball team and winner fo the Junior Mid-Piedmont tournament were given certificates by Eugene Shannon, Barium graduate now at Davidson College. Those awarded were James Shroyer, Edward Cole, George Norris, Gwyn Fletcher, Joe Ben Gibbs and Henry Pittman.

Dave Spencer, also a Davidson student and former member of the Barium family, presented varsity letters to Capt. Lee Spencer, Captain-elect Rex Lewis, Hugh Norman, Richard Martin, Arthur Roach, and William Smith. The boys' varsity was runner-up in the South Piedmont conference.

Alwyn Morrison, a Statesville sports devotee who has closely followed Barium's athletic teams, was introduced and announced that he was presenting a number of awards in honor of his father. He presented awards to Lee Spencer, as the most valuable player on the varsity basketball team; to Bessie Kennedy as the most valuable member of the varsity girls' sextette; to Wilma Jessup as the individual who had shown most basketball improvement from the beginning of her career through the present year, and to Miller Blue, for his consistency and improvement in wrestling.

Leroy Sossamon, a faculty member, gave certificates to the seventh and eighth grade girls who were champions of that group in the South Piedmont conference and also of the Junior Mid-Piedmont tournament. These went to Lorene Brown, May Shoaf, Mabel Shoaf, Myrtle Mills, Elizabeth Robards, Lilly Bryant, Flora Mae Smith, Virginia Cranfill, Gertrude Bryant and Margaret Presnell.

The final presentations went to the varsity girls and were made by Jos. B. Johnston, superintendent, who had remarks to make regarding the whole athletic program of the winter. Girls winning their letters were Capt. Bessie Kennedy, Captain-elect Grace Coppedge, Wilma Jessup, Agnes Coppedge, Ernestine Garrett, Nancy Parcell, Johnnie Burgin, Helen Thomas, and Marjorie Lail.

New Year Table

Very little comment need be made about the table of receipts for the month of April, for the giving of the first month of 1939-1940 followed the usual pattern at the outset of a new year; i. e., very meagre receipts.

The following is the table for the month of April:

Winston-Salem	$ 118.50	2.4c
Albemarle	100.61	2.3c
Mecklenburg	388.44	2.2c
Orange	239.44	2 c
Kings Mountain	113.35	1.9c
Concord	167.17	1.4c
Fayetteville	126.16	1 c
Granville	44.01	.7c
Wilmington	14.71	.2c
Synod	$1,312.39	1.6c

Regents Met At Barium

reduction of $2,599.42 in the current bills a year ago. An increase of $1,197.86 was noted in the endowment. All committees made reports to the board meeting, and an estimated budget and income for the ensuing fiscal year was presented and adopted, as part of the finance committee report.

Frequent mention was made of the approaching 50-year celebration of the home in 1941, though no definite action was taken at this meeting. The special committee appointed last fall was continued. Miss Lucile Johnston of High Point was introduced as a new member of the board from Orange Presbyterial.

In addition to Miss Johnston and Dr. McGregor, others attending the sessions were Mrs. John Harper of Wilmington, secretary, Rev. Chester Alexander of Tarboro, Mrs. S. P. Stowe of Belmont, Rev. S. H. Fulton of Laurinburg, Mrs. Plato Monk of Wilson, Dr. John R. Hay of Hickory, Mrs. L. A. McLaurin of Hemp, Rev. R. C. Clontz of Whiteville, Mrs. H. A. Rouzer of Salisbury, Professor John W. Moore, Mrs. George Norfleet, both of Winston-Salem, S. Parks Alexander of Durham, Mrs. J. A. Hartness of Raleigh, J. S. McKnight of Shelby, and Mrs. J. M. Walker of Charlotte.
